

UTE INDIAN TRIBE

Energy & Minerals Department

Occupation: Environmental Coordinator

Location: Ft. Duchesne, Utah

Education: Bachelor's Degree Preferred

Environmental, Physical Science or Engineering

Salary: Depending on Experience

Duties & Responsibilities:

The Ute Tribe Energy & Minerals Department seeks experienced, operations, maintenance, and data management of an ambient air quality and meteorological monitoring network located on the Ute Indian Tribe, Uintah and Ouray Reservation. Routine field inspection, maintenance and service of network instrumentation, daily (M-F) network data downloading and assessment, and data validation, summarization, and reporting: details oriented. Opportunity is an entry level position focused on Air Quality Program with significant advancement potential in environmental management. Competitive salary with an excellent benefits package. Continuing education supplied. Tribal Preference position.

Other duties assigned.

Position Requirements

B.S. Degree in environmental or physical science or engineering-related discipline and a minimum of 3 years of relevant employment history or 5 years experience specific to job requirements skills required. Ability to work in the field unsupervised and some electronics skills a plus. Position function occasionally requires moderate physical capabilities.

Additional Requirements:

1. Must have a valid Utah Driver License and able to obtain a Tribal License.
2. Must pass a pre-employment Drug Test.
3. Must pass a Criminal Background Check.
4. Must successfully pass a 3 months (90 Days) Probationary Period.